MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

The attached letter from Los Angeles outlines in rather extensive form the facts and background in so far as they are known concerning the killing of "Bugsy" Siegel. I thought you would be interested in this since undoubtedly if you make a trip West, this case will be the subject of considerable discussion on the part of people with whom you may be in contact.

We are advising Hood by letter today that there would appear to be no reason why the Bureau should turn over any information [redacted] but that any person offering information concerning the killing of Siegel should be referred direct to the police department to report their information.

[redacted]

Re: THE KILLING OF BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING
CRIME SURVEY

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Salt Lake City teletype dated June 24, 1947, wherein is requested complete details and subsequent developments of the murder of BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL in Los Angeles.

The killing of SIEGEL was brought to the attention of this office after the shooting, at 10:50 P.M. on June 20, 1947, when [redacted] telephonically advised Special Agent [redacted] that [redacted] had telephoned him.

At this time [redacted] told [redacted] that SIEGEL had been shot five times; that seven bullets of .45 caliber were shot; that one bullet grazed the coat of ALLEN SMILEY who was present with SIEGEL in the living room at 810 North Linden Drive, Beverly Hills, California - VIRGINIA HILL'S residence; and that CHARLES "CHICK" HILL, brother of VIRGINIA HILL, and JERI MASON, believed to be VIRGINIA HILL'S Secretary, were upstairs at the residence at the time of the shooting. Immediately after the shooting an automobile which was proceeding north toward Sunset Boulevard from the residence had been reported seen by neighbors.

DEFERRED 301

Los Angeles newspapers, on the morning of June 21, 1947, submitted headline publicity of SIEGEL'S murder, relating the following additional information:

I. [redacted] was sleeping at the residence at the time of the killing.

II. ALLEN SMILEY made the statement: "I heard the glass shattering and I ducked; I don't know how many shots were fired, but when I looked at SIEGEL I could see he had taken most of them."

Re: THE KILLING OF BENJAMIN "BOOST" SIEGEL
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

[REDACTED] heard the shot and the car in turn to near a high powered automobile rear away toward Sunset Boulevard. Another neighbor reported that he had observed strange men sitting in automobiles in front of Miss HILL's residence on the night of the killing.

IV. A tiny sticker advertisement which had been stuck on the Los Angeles
Examiner newspaper which SIEGEL had been reading when killed read: "Good-night, Sleep Well".

V. SIEGEL's body was taken to the Los Angeles County Morgue and when police went through his clothes they found two 14-karat gold burs, a Mexican gold piece fashioned into a money clip, a wrist watch, and an undisclosed amount of cash.

VI. Accounts of SIEGEL's connection in the "BIG GREENY" GREENBERG murder were set out in various newspapers.

VII. [REDACTED] was held as a material witness by the Beverly Hills
Police Department.

Re: THE KILLING OF BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL
SYNOPSIS - INFORMATION CONCERNING THE KILLING

[REDACTED] telephonically advised on June 21, 1947 that he was surprised to hear of the killing of SIEGEL. He stated that he discredited the story that SIEGEL was killed because he owed money to the Mafia Syndicate, headed by FRANK COSTELLO and JOE ADONIS, concluding: "You can't collect money from a dead man".

[REDACTED] telephonically volunteered on the same date that SIEGEL was fighting a big force, meaning "The Unione Sicillione Syndicate", and that he didn't deserve this because he hadn't done them any wrong.

[REDACTED] advised that he had been present at Jack's Cafe in Ocean Park, California on the night of June 20, 1947 and he observed SIEGEL "in a huddle" with one of the co-owners of Jack's Cafe.

[REDACTED] observed SIEGEL [REDACTED] leave the cafe, which gave out free newspapers with the stickers on them reading "Good-night, Sleep Well".

From June 21, 1947 through June 26, 1947 SIEGEL's death received newspaper headline publicity in Los Angeles. Many proposed reasons for the killing were set out, including gang warfare and dope smuggling; the fact that Las Vegas gambling clubs were losing money because of the Flamingo Club; that SIEGEL's interest in the Flamingo Club and Hotel drained his resources to the extent that he was applying pressure to the Los Angeles bookmakers who subscribe to the Trans-America Wire Service; that a patron of the Flamingo lost heavily betting and had undertaken reprisals; etc. etc. Copies of these articles were forwarded to the Bureau by confidential letter dated June 27, 1947.

Significantly, one article related that VIRGINIA HILL had had a quarrel with SIEGEL in Las Vegas and that she had departed for Paris, France.

On June 21, 1947 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who is known to be friendly with [REDACTED]

telephonically advised Special Agent in Charge R. B. HOOD that he had been on the murder case of SIEGEL constantly and requested to know if the FBI was interested in the case. He had learned that SIEGEL had flown into the Los Angeles area on the morning of June 20, 1947. [REDACTED] b7c [REDACTED] SIEGEL was expected to keep an appointment with his attorney, [REDACTED] in Beverly Hills, California.

[REDACTED] had been in VIRGINIA HILL's house and said seven cartridges were found outside of the window. These cartridges were of 30 caliber size. The bullets were copper jacketed, which were no doubt shot from a U. S. Army Carbine Rifle. b7c

The victim SIEGEL was seated four feet from the window which was fourteen feet from the spot where the carbine was rested on a lattice between VIRGINIA HILL's residence and the neighbor's driveway. Nine shots were evidently fired. Two bullets had entered SIEGEL's body through the head — one bullet came out through an eye, and a portion of an eyelid was found ten feet from him. There were five holes in the wall about as big as a silver dollar, and other bullets hit other objects in the room.

The couch on which SIEGEL and SMILEY were sitting was at right-angles to the window, with the back in line with the right side of the nearby window. SMILEY was believed to have been next to the window with his left arm resting along the back of the couch. SIEGEL was at the far end of the couch, leaning over a little and reading a Los Angeles Examiner newspaper. Apparently the first two bullets just singed SMILEY's coat at his left arm. According to [REDACTED] the killer almost had to shoot around the corner and obviously was a very good shot. b7c

The Los Angeles Times newspaper dated June 22, 1947 reflected that Chief Deputy District Attorney S. ERNEST ROLL, who with Captain W. W. WHITE headed the investigation of the murder, obtained a lengthy statement from BARNEY RUDITSKY who was absolved from having any connection with the investigation. ROLL stated that RUDITSKY's information furnished little if any light on the murder. b7D

[REDACTED]

From a confidential source [REDACTED] b2 b7c
[REDACTED] which is being developed now as an informant by this office, the following was furnished: SIEGEL had encroached upon the activities of [REDACTED] in Las Vegas, Nevada and they retaliated.

SIEGEL had a fight with [REDACTED] two weeks previous to the killing and SIEGEL told [REDACTED] that he no longer had anything to do with the wire service and that [REDACTED] should get out of the town of Los Angeles. b2 b7c

[REDACTED] subsequently learned from [REDACTED] b2 b7c
[REDACTED] believed by this office to be [REDACTED]
the following two reasons for the killing of SIEGEL:

A. SIEGEL had been losing money heavily in Las Vegas in his operation of the Flamingo Hotel and was attempting a recoup through his friend GEORGE RAFT and others by attempting to gain bookmaking trade in the motion picture colony. This move clashed with [REDACTED] who had SIEGEL killed. b

B. A meeting was held in Las Vegas between SIEGEL and his associates wherein it was decided that the Trans-America Wire Service was not doing so

[REDACTED] b7c

On June 25, 1947 Special Agent [REDACTED] attended the Corner's Inquest of SIEGEL's death, held at the Hall of Justice in Los Angeles. Captain W. W. WHITE, Beverly Hills, Police Department, ALLEN SMILEY, JERI MASON, and CHARLES HILL testified. b7c

Captain WHITE testified that the killing happened at approximately 10:50 P.M. on June 20, 1947 and he arrived at the residence at approximately 11:00 P.M. He stated that he had picked up nine 30-caliber U. S. Army carbine shells at the scene; that two shots entered SIEGEL's head, one entering the right eye and exiting at the left eye, the other entering the right cheek and exiting the left neck, shattering the neck vertebra, and that the distance from where the victim was shot to the window of the residence was four feet.

ALLEN SMILEY identified the body at the inquest and related the activities of JERI MASON, CHARLES HILL, SIEGEL and himself before the shooting. He stated that at 3:00 P.M. he drove SIEGEL to JERRY ROTHCHILD's Barber Shop, 222 South Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, California, where he left SIEGEL. SMILEY returned to his apartment and made an appointment to see his doctor. SMILEY completed the appointment which lasted forty-five minutes, and returned to pick up SIEGEL at JOE ROSS's law offices in Beverly Hills, California, and returned with SIEGEL to the Linden Drive address. SMILEY, SIEGEL, HILL and MASON then proceeded to Jack's Cafe at Ocean Park, California because they had heard that the cafe had just opened and all of them were curious to see what it was like. SMILEY related that after having dinner at Jack's Cafe they returned to the Linden Drive address and the only stop made was at the Beverly Wildfire Drug Store where SIEGEL purchased some cambray. They arrived at the Linden Drive address at approximately 10:00 or 10:20 P.M. and after being in the house for about ten minutes both SIEGEL and SMILEY sat on the Chesterfield couch talking while SIEGEL looked over the Los Angeles Examiner newspaper.

SMILEY first heard a lot of noise, "like firecrackers, and thought it was a gag", but when he saw blood he knew SIEGEL had been shot. SMILEY said: "Quicker than I can say, I dove to the ground and immediately heard CHICK HILL, who was upstairs with JERI MASON, call down, 'what's the matter, BEN'". SMILEY then hollered for them to call the doctor and the police and to turn off the lights. He yelled, "BEN is shot; call the police; call a doctor". He added, "someone called BARNEY RUDITSKY, a very good friend".

JERI MASON and CHARLES HILL both testified, stating that they were upstairs pulling tacks out of the carpet because they were getting ready to go to Florida. Miss MASON was asked information concerning her occupation which she stated was secretary to VIRGINIA HILL, however she was embarrassed when asked direct questions concerning from whom VIRGINIA HILL rented and if Miss MASON had received correspondence recently from Miss HILL. Miss MASON knew very little concerning VIRGINIA HILL's personal business and was very very vague. It was later disclosed by the Los Angeles County District Attorney's office that CHARLES HILL and JERI MASON, who was formerly the secretary for MARIE MacDONALD, the motion picture actress, are engaged to be married.

RE: SIEGELMANS - INFORMATION CONCERNING
JUNE 25, 1947

From June 20 through June 25, 1947 SIEGEL's body remained at the Los Angeles County Morgue unclaimed. However, after the Coroner's Inquest Dr. MAURICE SIEGEL, brother of the victim, claimed the body and secret funeral services for the slain underworld big shot were held at the Groman Mortuary in Los Angeles. The services lasted five minutes and only six mourners, including SIEGEL's divorced wife and his two daughters, were present. The ornate $5,000. silver-plated bronze casket remained closed throughout the funeral, the body having been hermetically sealed in the coffin on the night of June 25, 1947. The rights of the Jewish Church were conducted privately by Rabbi MAX KERT of the Olympic Jewish Center at the request of the family to thwart plans of SIEGEL's friends and business associates for a lavish Chicago-style funeral.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

In connection with the investigation conducted [REDACTED] it is noted that GEORGE RAFT was thoroughly questioned and as a result he stated that SIEGEL was a very good friend of his and furnished no detrimental information about his activities. b7D

Mrs. ESTHER SIEGEL, the divorced wife of the victim, was also questioned [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Mrs. SIEGEL stated that she was a schoolday sweetheart in New York City with SIEGEL and that about twenty years ago while he was in the garage business there she married him. She talked freely [REDACTED] b7D b7C

[REDACTED] however there was no mention made of SIEGEL's background as a "tough slugger from New York City". Instead, she called SIEGEL "a fine husband and thoughtful father".

CRIME SURVEY

DATE: July 14, 1947

[REDACTED] advised on June 25, 1947 that MRS. ESTHER SIEGEL, wife of BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL, planned to have a very private funeral service at Los Angeles, California for the slain gangster. Only members of SIEGEL's immediate family were expected to attend the service and no outsiders were invited. Informant stated that he understands no publicity whatsoever is to be given to the funeral planned and that the funeral may come as a surprise to even intimate associates of the former gangster.

This information was born out by newspaper articles of June 26, 1947 which reflected that MRS. SIEGEL and her daughters together with SIEGEL's sister and [REDACTED] appeared at the mortician's office and requested that an immediate funeral service be conducted.

MEMO:

The Police expect to tie up the Bugsy Siegel killing with the Ragen killing in Chicago last year. (However, the cops do not expect to be able to put the finger on the actual murderer of Siegel). Despite anything written about narcotics, etc., the real cause of the whole thing is bookmaking and racing interests. Here's the story.....

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 11-7-95 BY SP-7 mac/bs

There are two supposedly rival services interests who have the racing wire ~~interest~~ sewed up. (Also all the various 'scratch sheets'). They are the Ragain-Annenber crowd and the Trans American News Service and Publishers, Inc. The latter is run by the 'boys' from the east here, and has an office in Brklyn and one in Chicago---address in Chi is 6 East Lake St. phone Medallion 1931). Actually, the two syndicates are linked up secretly, their rivalry is a front to stop the Gov't from any possible anti-trust, monopoly injunctions...Now all the big bookmakers throughout the country need these wire services, and are charged a nominal rate---about $75 per day. Bugsy, against the advice of the biggest 'boys' here: (ML, JA, started charging double that rate to the west coast bookies. That's where the fight started !.....

[redacted] came to the Phoenix office on July 21, 1947, ostensibly to make a social call, but advised while here that they were working under cover on a lead which they had received in the SIEGEL case. This lead, the source of which was not mentioned, was to the effect that two short stocky swarthy Italians were supposed to have done the job and that they were brought out here by GUS GREENBAUM and were known to have hung around the Adams Hotel in Phoenix; further that they were driving a tan Buick with no license plates. b7c

[redacted] advised that they would remain in Phoenix for a few days in an attempt to run this lead out, without disclosing their presence here. They said they had made a check of the automobiles passing through Blythe, California, for a short period of time immediately preceding the death of SIEGEL, and had located approximately 95 cars which could have fit the description they had.

Any further information developed through this source will be promptly furnished to the Bureau and interested offices.

It will be seen from the above [REDACTED] may probably be considered capable of performing most any type crime and it is not known at the Birmingham Office just how far the Los Angeles Office or the Bureau may desire to follow up his whereabouts on the date of SIEGEL's demise. A copy of this communication, however, is being made available to the Mobile Office in the event it might be desirable to check on his whereabouts at Pensacola, Florida on that date. b2

Under date of July 14, 1947, the "Birmingham News" carried photographs and a feature story concerning VIRGINIA HILL, copies of which are being forwarded to the Bureau and the Los Angeles Office for informative purposes. It is noted that the article states that VIRGINIA's father, a former horse and mule trader in Bessemer, Alabama, has recently moved to Marietta, Georgia, and for that reason, a copy of this communication is being forwarded to the Atlanta Office in the event it might be desirable to interview members of her family there.

In the absence of any further request for active investigation this case is being considered RUC, and a copy of instant letter is being forwarded to the Chicago Office due to their interest in SIEGEL, as well as the fact that the Chicago Office was formerly office of origin in the VIRGINIA HILL case.

Ex-Convict Says He Drove Car for Killer of Siegel

Waurika, Okla., Aug. 5 (AP).—County Attorney John Hannah said today a man who "feared for his life" signed a statement declaring he drove a car for the man who killed gambler Bugsy Siegel in Beverly Hills June 20.

Hannah identified the man as Virgil Clark Manning, 28, of Los Angeles. He said Manning told him he had served a term for forgery in the Missouri Penitentiary. (Records at the penitentiary show a Virgil Clark Manning served four years on a forgery conviction and was released in February, 1945.)

Siegel was shot to death through an open window as he sat reading a newspaper. Nine slugs ripped into his body.

The killer is still at large.

In Beverly Hills, Police Chief C. H. Anderson said he had wired for a copy of the man's complete statement.

SUBJECT: BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL
 INFORMATION CONCERNING;
 CRIME SURVEY

The July 14, 1947, issue of the bi-monthly magazine "Fortnight", a California publication published at 4504 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, California, carries a feature article under the heading of "Justice", entitled, "A New Mob Takes Over.....The Killing of Bugsy Siegel Marks a New Era for the Rackets in California".

This article reports at some length the known facts of the Siegel murder giving what purports to be Siegel's background and his connection with the "Unione Siciliana" and "Mafia", with CHARLES "LUCKY" LUCIANO, GEORGE RAFT, and with an unidentified narcotics ring. The article states a rumor had it that the big mob would soon be calling the turns in California with a new representative in MEYER LANSKI, pal of SIEGEL's.

In this connection this office advised the Los Angeles Office by letter dated August 29, 1946, in a letter entitled as above that a confidential source, whose reliability is well known, when questioned concerning other interests from the East who may be moving westward indicated that MEYER LANSKI was interested in the "Flamingo Club" with SIEGEL, which club was then under construction at Las Vegas, Nevada.

The above is furnished for whatever interest it may have to the Bureau and auxiliary offices.

Refer Bureau Office Memorandum of August 4, 1947, calling attention to phraseology in a communication from this office which indicated that the informant might have been furnished information in an interview, and instructing that in the handling of this informant no information whatever is to be furnished the informant.

As instructed by the Bureau, I discussed this matter on August 13, 1947 with Special Agents [REDACTED] Resident Agents [REDACTED] at Las Vegas, Nevada, [REDACTED] I specifically pointed out to them that under no circumstances is any information which has come into the Bureau's possession to be furnished this informant at any time. I also discussed with them the absolute necessity of their being guarded in any conversations they have with the informant, so that no information will be imparted to him. b7c

My communication to the Bureau dated July 22, 1947, referred to in the Bureau's Office Memorandum, was dictated by Special Agent [REDACTED] b7c

[REDACTED] and I had discussed with him how his conversations with the informant would have to be carried on with the utmost discretion in order that information of any kind would not be furnished the informant. Agent [REDACTED] I am sure, realized the importance of the situation; and although the wording of our communication of July 22, which was dictated by him, would seem to indicate that the informant made the evaluation of information which the Bureau had received, I would be more inclined to believe that this is [REDACTED] evaluation. b7c

At any rate, I have discussed the importance of this matter with the two Agents [REDACTED] and shall go into the matter thoroughly with any other Agents who might be assigned [REDACTED] so that there will be no possibility of a misunderstanding. b7c

For the Bureau's information, on August 12, 1947, [redacted] of the Las Vegas, Nevada Police Department advised Special Agents [redacted] that he had been working on a "pet" theory as to who killed SIEGEL. [redacted] stated he believed the person who engineered the killing was MOE SEDWAY of the Flamingo Hotel. [redacted] informed that it was common knowledge among the gambling element in Las Vegas that SIEGEL had been out to "break" SEDWAY, and SIEGEL was reported to have made the statement that he would make a "shill" out of SEDWAY. [redacted] expressed the belief that SEDWAY had acted peculiarly just before SIEGEL was killed, and that since the killing he has been "nervous as a cat" whenever [redacted] has seen him. He stated that for several days prior to the SIEGEL killing SEDWAY was not around town and was not at his home in Las Vegas.

[redacted] further advised that SEDWAY would have had the motive for killing SIEGEL and is smart enough to have engineered the actual killing; further, that SEDWAY seems to have considerable authority at the Flamingo Hotel since the reorganization.

[redacted] stated that he had passed on his "theory" to investigators from the District Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, California, as they had contacted him in Las Vegas. He mentioned that an investigator of the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office was in Las Vegas on August 9 and 10, 1947, conducting further investigation concerning the killing of SIEGEL.

RE: KILLING OF BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL:
[REDACTED]
RACKETEERING ACTIVITIES LOS ANGELES FIELD DIVISION

Dear Sir:

On July 31, 1947 [REDACTED] was interviewed in the
U. S. Marshal's Office in Los Angeles by SAs [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] volunteered information concerning the slaying of BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SIEGEL, [REDACTED] who was slain at approximately 10:45 p.m., June 20, 1947 at VIRGINIA HILL'S residence, 810 North Linden Drive, Beverly Hills, California. This information, together with this office's attempt to verify the same, is set out as follows:

MOTIVE FOR THE KILLING OF SIEGEL:

[REDACTED]

When SIEGEL came to California in 1937, he was authorized by the Syndicate to organize the State for them and act as a front man for their various Syndicate interests. However, he was strictly forbidden from "muscling in" or touching the motion picture industry because the Syndicate already had it "set up." SIEGEL violated his orders, and the Syndicate thought the time right, they had him killed [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] SIEGEL was not killed because he was mixed up in the horse-race wire service, or because he had an association with VIRGINIA HILL, or because he owed the Syndicate money which he borrowed to operate the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada. He was killed because he had gained a foothold in the tion picture industry. [redacted] Forest of this could be established determining and what extent SIMUL controlled in both current and future picture business, and just how he did obtain the control of the same. However, he added that this could not be determined by going to the motion picture industry direct Informant knew that the background of certain motion picture executives, including [REDACTED] and others, was unsavory. SIGEL through his criminal associations also knew the past including the criminal connections of these executives and he used this knowledge to "blackmail and shake them."

The Informant knew that many of the motion picture executives in Hollywood have gained respectability in their present positions and could not stand any exposure threatened by SIEGEL through his associate.

rather than be faced with such exposure, which was evident, or else pay-up, because SIEGEL was losing money in his operations of the Flamingo Hotel.

The killing of SIEGEL was brought up in the interview when Agents pointed out [redacted] that SIEGEL was killed, no doubt, by paid killers and probably paid killers also could slay [redacted]

The motive in killing SIEGEL was to eliminate him from their operation on the West Coast because he had served them their purpose and SIEGEL'S protege, [REDACTED] was ready to take SIEGEL'S place as their new top gangster. The existence of a top gangster to keep other criminal elements in line with their operations is always necessary in the Syndicate's functions.

Legend is the movie version of the Follies. How do we know as the author of two murder mysteries, Derwky Wegman, who married the playwright, Sampson Raphaelson, wrote a novel called "The Ziegfeld Girl" by the former Follies beauty, Betty MacDonald.

Some of the Ziegfeld girls became the wives of writers. Gladys Glad is the wife of Mark Hellinger, movie producer. Louise Andrews married columnist Arthur "Bugs" Baer.

Ziegfeld beauties also have made successes in business undertakings. Irene Hayes, for example, is now a successful Park Avenue florist. Gertrude Vanderbilt was at one time on the executive staff of a tobacco company.

She now has an advertising agency of her own. Beverly Jones is head of a ticket agency. Joane and Cora Stephens have their ticket agency on Madison.

Diosa, 34, husband and two children. She says she met Pupi in 1941 when he was playing in "Two Many Girls" and the future darling of the bobby-soxers was dreaming of leading his own band. Everybody in the show wanted to date him and Diosa did—wearing her "popularity" as a sort of challenge to me. She was doubting at a night club at the time and says Virginia Hill, in whose Beverly Hills, Cal. home, Diosa would be fun to give an engagement party for her and Van.

Van arrived wearing a rough plaid shirt with the tail hanging out and no tie and the music was played by a new band just in from Havana. The leader was a skinny little fellow named Pupi Campo.

"I didn't notice him much at first," Diosa recalls, "but he chose that night to pay a lot of attention to me. He asserted himself that night and even more later, but I had only a motherly interest in him."

"Then, poul, just like that, my interest shifted. Van faded out of the picture for me. I was hopelessly in love with Pupi and we were married in May, 1941, a few months after the engagement party."

Diosa says Pupi danced with her and sent flowers daily while Van was busy making pictures. She was entranced when Pupi played "Que Pasa?" for her and whispered the phrase (que pasa means what happens) while they rhumbaded.

"Que Pasa?" was one of the songs he made popular and he kept asking her, "Que pasa with you and me?" Then they were married and he changed the words. Now, according to Diosa, and for six long years the question has been, "Que pasa with you and Van?"

"You know," observes Diosa,

"when a Latin is jealous he's really jealous. As Van kept rising in the world, Pupi had the feeling I must still be in love with him."

I kept telling him how ridiculous it was, because if I had wanted to marry Van I would have done so. I told Pupi I chose him because I loved him. But he wasn't convinced."

Diosa says Pupi was forever reminding her and others that she was once engaged to the movie idol and suggesting that perhaps she was still in love with him.

"It was awful. I couldn't reason with him. When I bought a house for my family in Brentwood, Cal., Pupi said I did it to be near Van. Always it was Van. What a headache!"

She never saw a Van Johnson movie, says Diosa, in all the years she was married to Pupi—and she only met Van on one occasion.

"We had a very pleasant chat," she says. "I asked him about my marriage and I told him I was crazy about Pupi. A little later, Van married Mrs. Keenan Wynn."

For all her supple swaying on the stage, Diosa declares she's just a simple, old-fashioned girl who takes her niece to Coney Island and prefers to settle down and raise a family.

"No, no," she exclaims, "my show is not what I am."

As for comparisons between Pupi and Van, as seen through Diosa's discerning eyes:

"Van is six foot two and on the skinnier side. But Pupi has so much personality and life that to me he was always better looking than Van."

penetral to the minute. Pupi is full of life and fun.

"Pupi is warm, full of ardor, keen, always on the go. Van is slow and easy going. He never gets under your skin the way Pupi does."

"Van is terribly serious. Pupi is full of practical jokes and humor."

Diosa finds Pupi's vaulting ambition a shortcoming—"He's got a lot of talent and wants to get to the top. His work counts for everything, day and night. He won't have me with his hand even for $25 a week (Diosa gets $2500 now). At first I was everything."

"Now it's his hand." She Diosa is asking the courts for a separation, she doesn't want and posing an old familiar question: "What's next?"

Re: BENJAMIN "BUGSY" SEIGEL
MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING

Dear Sir:

Three of the nine carbine shells found on the grounds at the scene of the murder of BENJAMIN SEIGEL in Beverly Hills have been forwarded under separate cover to the FBI Laboratory. These shells were obtained from [redacted] of the District Attorney's Office in Los Angeles, who previously received them from the Beverly Hills Police Department. 14 b2 lv

No specific request has been made of the Laboratory relative to what comparison is desired at this time. It is felt, however, that all carbine guns coming to the attention of the Bureau Offices in hoodlum centers in the United States should be forwarded to the Laboratory and appropriate examinations conducted in an effort to locate the killer's gun. It is suggested, therefore, that New York, Chicago, Detroit, Miami, Salt Lake City, Phoenix and San Francisco be alerted to recover carbines for the purpose of the above examination. No further action is being taken pending instructions from the Bureau regarding this suggestion.

There is attached hereto copy of a letter received from the Los Angeles Office forwarding three carbine cartridge cases said to have been obtained from [REDACTED] of the District Attorney's Office, Los Angeles, who in turn received them from the Beverly Hills Police Department. The letter states that these three cartridge cases were found on the grounds at the scene of the murder of Benjamin "Bugsy" Seigel in Beverly Hills, California. b7c

It will be noted that the attached letter requests the laboratory to hold these three fired cartridge cases "pending instructions from the Bureau relative to any comparisons of carbine guns found in hoodlum centers in the United States." The letter further states that the Los Angeles Office has requested the Bureau to authorize certain comparisons and will advise the laboratory of these instructions when they are received from the Bureau.

I am calling this to your attention in view of the unusual nature of this matter. The three cartridge cases have been received in the laboratory and are being held pending further advice.

EXAMINATION - INFORMATION CONCERNING THE MURDER OF

Reference is made to your letter dated August 27, 1947, in the above entitled case, wherein you suggested that designated field divisions be alerted to recover cartridges for the purpose of having them compared with the three cartridge cases which were found at the scene of the murder of Benjamin Siegel and which have been forwarded to the laboratory.

An examination has been made of the three cartridge cases forwarded to the laboratory. It has been determined that the breech face, firing pin and ejector marks on these specimens are not sufficiently distinct for comparison with test specimens from suspected carbines. The extractor marks on one of the cases are also not adequate for comparison. A few similarities were found between the extractor marks on the other two cases but the marks were of such a nature that it was not possible to identify these cases as having been loaded into or extracted from the same weapon. It may be possible to identify the extractor marks on these cases with tests from suspected weapons.

It is therefore suggested that since referenced letter indicates nine cartridge cases were found on the grounds at the scene of the murder, the Los Angeles Division may desire to obtain the six additional shells for examination by the laboratory.

The three cartridge cases which have been examined are being retained in the laboratory until advice is received from the Los Angeles Office as to whether the additional six cartridge cases recovered are to be forwarded to the laboratory for examination.

I have had the three caliber .30 carbine cartridge cases recovered in connection with the above-entitled case examined by [redacted] [redacted] advises me that the firing pin impressions in these three cartridge cases do not bear sufficient microscopic marks for determining whether or not these three specimens were fired in the same weapon or for comparison with test specimens. This is also true of the head of the cartridge cases with respect to breech face marks and ejector marks. There are on these three cartridge cases a few extractor marks, however, the marks are not sufficiently distinct to identify these three specimens as having been extracted from the same weapon. The marks on one of them are entirely inadequate for comparison and only a few similarities were found between the extractor marks on the other two specimens. There is a possibility that the extractor marks on the latter specimens could be identified with those on test cartridge cases fired from the same weapon.
